

Smoke coming from downtown area is related to a movie that is currently being filmed in Baton Rouge.

The Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality has received numerous inquiries regarding the smoke that is related to the filming and there are no environmental concerns.